LC: To understand and practise using speech punctuation

Remember to:

- Use inverted commas to start and end speech
- Use a capital letter to start a line of speech
- Use punctuation at the end of a speech line and inside the inverted commas (. , ? !)
- Use a speech verb and adverb to show who and how they spoke
- Use a full stop at the at the end of the complete sentemce

1) Add in and edit the speech punctuation in the following sentences.

mountain, you are mine Fausto bellowed loudly

no, I am my own replied the mountain bravely

did you not hear me the irate man retorted

you are in charge and I am your admitted the mountain

2 Add verbs and adverbs to show how each character said the sentence.

"Mountain, you are mine!"_____.

"No, I am my own,"_____.

3) Write your own speech sentence for each of the pictures. What else might Fausto and the mountain have said?
