10 things found in a St Mary's book bag.

A moist, chewed pencil.

A rusty, broken fidget spinner that has been over spun.

A sticky, half opened fruit winder, full of fluffy mould.

A secret escape plan on how to distract the teacher.

A crumpled, dog chewed homework sheet, that has never been completed.

A snapped plastic ruler with the numbers rubbed off.

A teacher's answer book (well I didn't understand the work!)

A snapped head band.

A gagged teaching assistant, from the previous year, that's never been discovered.
