

WELCOME TO CALIFORNIA – THE GOLDEN STATE

A 12-hour flight from the UK and land in the sunny, West Coast of the USA!

SAN FRANCISCO

Here, in one of the most diverse cities in the USA, one can find all different tourist spots including Alcatraz – the legendary island prison, home for many years to infamous criminals like Al Capone, Machine gun Kelly and the ‘Birdman of Alcatraz’

FACT = ALCATRAZ WAS BUILT AS A MILITARY BASE BEFORE ‘WELCOMING’ IT’S FIRST PRISONERS IN 1934

The remarkable golden gate bridge spans 1.7 miles over the Pacific Ocean connecting the city to the bay.

“My family and I hired bikes and rode over the Golden Gate Bridge to Sausalito. It was amazing, the views were stunning and I can highly recommend adding it to your bucket list” – Jake, 11, UK

FACT - California has over 900 miles of coastline and a population of over 40 million people

Los Angeles - the city of angels

SPORT is a giant industry in California, from the basketball team LA Lakers to the LA Dodgers baseball team, other popular sports include American football, golf and horseracing.

as Universal, Paramount Pictures and Disneyland theme park. A ‘must see’ is Santa Monica pier – a traditional fairground which first opened in 1909.

Take a road trip from LA to San Diego down the Pacific Coast Highway.... The coastline has a diverse terrain including forests, deserts, beaches and further inland mountainous regions. SAN DIEGO is a Californian city situated on the Mexico border. The zoo there is one of the most famous in the world and home to over 3700 animals of all species.

The Pacific Coast Highway stretches over 655 miles starting north of San Francisco to north of San Diego in the south of the state.

“I recommend visiting universal studios in Hollywood, it has a fantastic range of rides and attractions. I loved my holiday in California because it has a warm climate – I especially liked the bustling city of Los Angeles.” – JAKE, 11, UK