

Do you want to hear a story?

THEN COME AND BE A PART
OLDHAM'S BRAND NEW STORY FESTIVAL

LAUNCHES - MONDAY 11TH MAY 2020

[www.oldhamtheatreworkshop.co.uk/
story-festival](http://www.oldhamtheatreworkshop.co.uk/story-festival)

ONLINE STORIES, SONGS &
ACTIVITIES
FOR EARLY YEARS

1: The Three Little Pigs

- Story read by Sam Glen – A Local actor who's most recently performed at the Coliseum Theatre as Jack in 'Jack and the Beanstalk
- Rhyme Time – A song based activity led by a member of the Oldham Central Library Childrens team – Connected to the theme
- Creative Stories – An art based activity led by a member of the Gallery Oldham Education Team- Connected to the theme
- Story Square - An interactive story session led by Ellie Purtill, a member of the Oldham Theatre Workshop Team – Repeated Activity Each Day to support learning

Downloads – There will be a coloring in sheet for each story as well as the text of each story of the day.

2: Goldilocks and the 3 Bears

- Story read by Sue Devaney – A Local actor who’s most recently performed in the national tour of ‘Calendar Girls’ and ‘Coronation Street’
- Rhyme Time – A song based activity led by a member of the Oldham Central Library Childrens team – Connected to the theme
- Creative Stories – An art based activity led by a member of the Gallery Oldham Education Team- Connected to the theme
- Story Square - An interactive story session led by Ellie Purtill, a member of the Oldham Theatre Workshop Team – Repeated Activity Each Day to support learning

Downloads – There will be a coloring in sheet for each story as well as the text of each story of the day.

3: The Gingerbread Man

- Story read by Olivia Cooke – A Local actor who’s most recently starred in Steven Speilberg’s ‘Ready Player One’ and ITV’s ‘Vanity Fair’
- Rhyme Time – A song based activity led by a member of the Oldham Central Library Childrens team – Connected to the theme
- Creative Stories – An art based activity led by a member of the Gallery Oldham Education Team- Connected to the theme
- Story Square - An interactive story session led by Ellie Purtill, a member of the Oldham Theatre Workshop Team – Repeated Activity Each Day to support learning

Downloads – There will be a coloring in sheet for each story as well as the text of each story of the day.

4: Hunt for the Giggle

- Story read by Sarah Nelson – A local writer and practitioner who also wrote the book. She is currently part of the BBC Writers Room project
- Rhyme Time – A song based activity led by a member of the Oldham Central Library Childrens team – Connected to the theme
- Creative Stories – An art based activity led by a member of the Gallery Oldham Education Team- Connected to the theme
- Story Square - An interactive story session led by Ellie Purtill, a member of the Oldham Theatre Workshop Team – Repeated Activity Each Day to support learning

Downloads – There will be a colouring in sheet for each story as well as the text of each story of the day.