

The Church of All Nations in Jerusalem

This Church is in the Garden of Gethsemane. When you stand in the doorway and look across the valley you can see the city of Jerusalem and the place where Jesus was crucified.

Think about this carefully - The Church of All Nations is in the Garden of Gethsemane. Why?

What are your thoughts and reflections on this?

Look carefully at the art work. What can you see?

What are your thoughts and reflections on this?

How do you think it would feel to be standing here in the garden looking across to the place where Jesus was crucified?