

Summer Term Newsletter

Year Group 1

Our BIG QUESTIONS this term are-

- Is my body a machine?
- Where have all the mills gone ?
- Why can't a Meerkat live in the North Pole?

SCIENCE

Identify and name a variety of common animals.

Identify animals that are carnivores, herbivores and omnivores.

Describe and compare the structure of animals.

Identify, name, draw and label the basic parts of the human body.

ART

Pencil drawings- lines of different shapes and thickness.

Observe and draw mills,

Figures and landscapes.

Artist- L S Lowry.

DT Healthy Eating: Make a fruit salad.

Literacy-

Poems on a theme

Instructions

Adventure stories

Stories from other cultures

Stories with pattern

Numeracy-

Number- place value to 100

Position and direction

Division, multiplication 2's, 5's, 10s

Money- know the value of coins, notes

Time- hour, half past.

Fractions- half, quarter

R.E.-

Why is Baptism special ? Jesus is special.

How do people of other faiths welcome new babies?

Computing

Creating animated story book

P.E.

Games- invasion games Gymnastics- sequencing and flight
Athletics- multi-skills, running, jumping

PSHE-

Healthy lifestyle
Making healthy choices
Other faiths and beliefs (welcoming new babies)

History-

Significant places in own locality: Dawn Mill (Asda), Elk Mill, Salford (Lowry).
Significant events within own locality: Industrial Revolution.
Local significant individuals: LS Lowry, Emily Pankhurst/Annie Kenney.

Geography-

Location of hot and cold areas of the world in relation to the Equator and the North and South Poles.

HOMEWORK- please continue to read nightly- Little Wandle eBook and sharing book. Please record in green reading record. Please also continue to record any home books that your child has been reading.

Homework will continue to be given out on Fridays, to be returned by the following Friday. Spellings will go home on Friday, to be learnt for the following Friday.

This term we will also be sending home each week, a sheet with an outline of the graphemes and phonemes that have been taught in the daily phonics sessions during each particular week.

P.E. days are Wednesday and Thursday.

Have a lovely summer term!

Mrs Ernest