What do you most value about St Mary's CE Primary School?

- High standards in learning.
- We feel part of a community
- Lovely helpful friendly staff
- The school values and the fact my children get up in the morning and love going to school.
- Their commitment to my child's education
- Culture and communication.
- Ethos
- Staff dedication. Christian ethos. Community feel. Friendly and approachable staff all around the school, support staff included.
- The buddy system is still the best thing ever, my son in particular has really enjoyed this aspect of school life.
- Any issues I may have, I always know I can go to Mrs.Hartley and she will listen, she is supportive, helpful and she will act in the best interest of my child. She follows up and deal with queries promptly. I take my hat off to her and think she is truly an inspiring and amazing Head Teacher.
- The community feel, the friendliness of all staff, how amazing they are with my child and her learning and progression i could not be happier with our choice of school for my girl
- The Christian ethos of the school and dedication and care from staff towards my child.
- Value each child as individual and support each child where necessary
- The staff and school facilities.
- The effort from the teachers
- Lovely, friendly, safe school. Which encourages and promotes good behaviour and kindness.
- I value that most teachers and staff care about the children and that my child/children have positive relationships with their teachers and wider staff.
- The unexpected level of support from the head teacher and understanding from class teacher.
- The caring that the children get from the teachers
- I love that the school is one class a year, it makes it feel more personal and I feel like it helps child development seeing other children from all the different years.
- The staff are exceptional and go above and beyond for the children in their care
- Children are genuinely cared for by the adults.
- The enthusiasm to help the children learn.
- My child is happy and contented at school while learning in a supportive environment.
- Caring school where my child is happy
- That children are expected to use their manners and show mutual respect to one another. There is a strong commitment to learning in a friendly environment.
- We appreciate the school day and school year routines which are embedded into school life.
- We respect the promotion of values and respect for others. E.g. Acts of kindness. Celebration assemblies.
- We feel that the school knows our child inside out and the personalised approach to their individual needs both academically and personally is evident and has been throughout their time here. The ethos of the school is very strong.
- How you care about the child as a whole, not just education.
- The friendly atmosphere and high standard of teaching and care
- Safe caring Christian environment.
- The openness and approachability of all staff
- I know my child will be taught well and pushed to do her best.
- Strong leadership and high expectations
- Support, values and ethos
- St Mary's School has been fantastic in my children's development and all of the staff are very approachable and always happy to go that extra mile.
- My daughter has no issues with going to school everyday. She is confident and feels very safe. This is down to the commitment of all the staff and the way the school is run.
- The teachers are approachable to both children and parents.
- I think that the way that the leadership at St Mary's have dealt with the last 2 years of Pandemic has been exceptional supporting our children to develop in very hard times. How they have constantly communicated with us as parents in an ever changing climate has been second to non and their dedication to our children's education. THANK YOU TO ALL
- I would highly recommend St Mary's. I'm so proud both of my children have attended here and both have done so well and been mostly happy.
- Squirrels is also an excellent addition to the school and both of my children enjoy spending time there.
- An outstanding school, proud to have sent and still send my children to.
- Thank you to all the staff, every year we are blown away with the consistency of outstanding teaching, you are all amazing
